

Meet your Personal Tax Team

Our personal tax department, which sits within our Private Client Services, is made up of highly qualified individuals, several of whom have worked at Shorts for many years. As a team, this allows us to offer both a detailed knowledge and understanding of our clients' personal tax circumstances and continuity of service.

You can be confident that if you provide us with all the information required for your tax return, we will do the rest. It is our aim to complete all personal tax returns as early as possible, allowing us time to explore any relevant tax planning opportunities.

We understand the importance of engaging advisers you can trust, and at Shorts, we are focused on ensuring you receive the very best advice and service.

Should your usual manager be unavailable, another member of the team will be pleased to help you.

Please feel free to contact any of the personal tax team. Emails can be sent to an individual direct, or personal-tax-team@shorts.uk.com
